

Julia L. Ozyavuz, President

Consultant, Quality Management Systems and International Regulatory Affairs

Ms. Julia L Ozyavuz chairs the Corporate Affairs. She is responsible for tracking performance of R&D, Engineering, Marketing, , Quality Management Systems, International Regulatory Affairs departments and set policies in these fields. She also performs Business Development and Marketing Activities and establish and maintain business contacts with LoyaMed present and potential customers.

Ms. Ozyavuz received M.Sc.A degree in Biomedical and Mechanical Engineering in 1991, from University of Montreal, Ecole Polytechnique de Montreal-Biomedical & Biomechanics Institute. She also held M.B.A degree from University of Istanbul in 1983. She obtained Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering in 1981 from Yildiz Technical University.

Ms. Ozyavuz gained intensive experiences in the following positions;

Researcher in Applied Mechanics and Materials, then, Orthopaedic Biomechanics and Biomaterials in Biomedical-Biomechanics between 1987-1991 at Institute Biomedical of Montreal University

Product Assurance Program Manager, Spar Aerospace for Satellites and Space Division between 1990-1994

Vice President, Quality Assurance and Operations at Loya Technologies between 1994-1998

Director, Quality Assurance and Regulatory Affairs at A.B.I between 2000-2003

Consultant, International Regulatory and Scientific Affairs at LoyaMed between 2003-present

Technical expert, Standard Council of Canada, Canadian Standard Institute International and Canadian Advisory Committee member of TC194/CAC/SCC/ISO10993-Biological Evaluation of Medical Devices, Clinical Investigation and Clinical Safety, TC210/CAC/SCC/ISO13485-Particular Requirements of Medical Devices

Julia L. Ozyavuz is the founder of LoyaMed.